Merry Christmas one and all, what an incredible end of term week.

Rabbits have had a fantastic winter walk where they met a surprise guest. We cannot believe he stops here in Churt, with his reindeer! We all had a superb Christmas lunch eaten together on Wednesday we even had crackers to pull thanks to the PTA. We then celebrated in the afternoon with games and treats, whilst a special visitor made an appearance in Fox and Badger class.

Our Christingle making workshop was a lovely experience and the smell was divine! Thank you to all our volunteers who helped us make to Christingles and truly understand their meaning. Thank you to every one who donated at the church service for a collection to the Children's Society.

Friday saw us enjoy our first Christingle service in church for many years and sadly our last service with Rev Debbie as her last service in the parish is on Christmas day. Debbie has been called to continue her work in hospice care and we know that she will make a huge difference to people at such a difficult time. As much as we would like to hold onto her, we are grateful for all that she has done, we know there is a greater plan for her. Thank you Reverend Debbie.

Merry Christmas one and all we look forward to seeing you on Wednesday 4th January 2023.

Thank you for showing your appreciation for Therese at The Crossways , your generous donations raised over £120. On that note we have been asked to remind people that there are short stay regulations on parking in front of the shops .

What is the true meaning of Christmas? Is it about how many presents you get? We hope that it is more about the warm feeling you get when you give a gift to someone else. Enjoy the gift of giving this Christmas

A prayer from Freya

Dear God,

Thank you for Jesus the saviour of all people.

Please help me to help people in need.

Help people to be good citizens.

Help me to give.

Please help me to remember that Christmas is not about getting things but giving things.

Amen

Health and Well-being

As illnesses set in for the winter you may find this NHS website page useful for information about school attendance. Is my child too ill for school?

Children are tiring as we head to the end of term and we are trying to catch our coughs and sneezes in tissues and wash our hands regularly.

Please make sure your child has warm clothing in school everyday. A coat is essential.

Please see attached email for further guidance from Surrey County Council on the latest health issues.

A colorful illustration of a Nativity scene. Mary is seated with the baby Jesus in a manger, surrounded by Joseph, a cow, a donkey, and sheep. The background shows a starry night sky and a stable entrance. Above the illustration, the text 'ST. JOHN'S CHURT & RUSHMOOR' is visible. The main title 'Nativity service' is written in a large, stylized font. Below the illustration, the text reads: '4pm Christmas Eve', 'Saturday 24th December', 'Come dressed as a delightful angel, a splendid king, or a groovy shepherd - suitable for all ages!'.
