WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents,

We have so many people to be grateful to this week starting with the fantastic team that put on the event of the year on Sunday! "The Bunny Fun Run" it is an amazing event, the excitement, the stamina, the physical skills and most of all the resilience in all of our young people is fantastic. It brings all of us together as a big supportive family, parents, pupils and past pupils. Thank you to the team of people who so smoothly organised the event Mrs Cowan and Mrs Harmer; ably assisted on the day by many setting up the course, cooking, MC, marshalling, supporting runners and warming up the athletes.

Then later in the week the school sprung a leak and the whole team sprang into action catching water and minimalising damage. Thank you to everyone and particularly Mr Refausse who spent the afternoon removing the water from the carpet. To Mr and Mrs Craven for their support and dehumidifier. Thank you to a past parent of the school who came to the rescue with the plumbing at a moment's notice and enabled us to turn the water back on safely, thank you Mr Johnson.

We are truly counting our blessings for our wonderful school community.

This week we have been thinking more about saying sorry for our bad choices and forgiving others for theirs. We now know how to sign 'sorry' (wiping a bad choice away using your hand) and forgiving (wiping away somebody else's bad choice away from your heart) and how doing these two things can make us and others much happier. We do of course need to learn from our mistakes and work hard not to repeat them!

Thank you for your amazing support for 'Red Nose Day' today. We will let you know of the amount raised next week for this and sponsorship for "The Bunny Fun Run!"

 Head of School Executive Head
