WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents

It has been a very busy week this week, culminating in seeing Fox Class going on a school trip yesterday to Windsor Castle. They had an amazing time and we look forward to seeing the outcomes in their learning about their trip. Thank you to the Fox Class parents who made this trip viable by making voluntary contributions.

We are looking forward to going on a whole school trip just after half-term and further details of the trip will follow in due course, but this trip has been organised to support the learning of our whole school topic on transport entitled "Are we nearly there yet?"

"All Stars Cricket" Initiative

On Tuesday, we welcomed Richard Hall, a cricket coach, to our school assembly. Richard is promoting the game of cricket in various parts of Surrey and encouraging children as young as four years of age to take up the sport at a local cricket club. This initiative is being promoted by the English Cricket Board (ECB). If your child is interested in taking part in a 8-week course for £40, please see the flyer that was sent home and contact the relevant people. It is a fantastic opportunity. On Tuesday, after our assembly, all the children participated in a taster session and they had a great time.

PTA

Our fantastic PTA is very busy organising several initiatives to raise funds for our school. One of the current initiatives is creating a school cook book called "Spill the Beans!" Please see below a message from the PTA asking for your contribution towards the cook book:

Many thanks for all your wonderful contributions to the forthcoming St John's family recipe book "Spill the Beans!" We have received some delicious recipes and some very creative drawings from the children! There is still time to get a recipe submitted. The PTA will be making the final collection on Monday, 30 April. You'll find a collection box for your recipe in the children's entrance. Many thanks everyone.

Have a lovely weekend and we look forward to seeing you on Monday.

Best wishes
Gillian Morris
