

CLUB LEADER REQUIRED

Starting 6 September 2018

We are looking for a creative, enthusiastic and caring individual to join our happy, thriving and vibrant infant school during term-time only to provide a stimulating, exciting and safe environment for our children at our Breakfast and After-school Club. The role will involve caring for the children, organising and overseeing their constructive play and activities, including preparation of a light breakfast or light teatime snack as appropriate. Facilities will include indoor and outside play space, including our wonderful trim trail and gazebo in Arthur's Field, adjacent to the playground.

If you enjoy working (and playing) with children, have good communication skills, are reliable and have experience of working in a child centred environment, we can offer you a working environment with friendly and supportive staff.

17.5 hours a week term time only

Mornings - 7.45am-8.45am

Afternoons - 2.45pm-5.15pm

Salary £6,595 per annum
